

NORTH LUBEC CEMETERIES

This booklet contains listings for several cemeteries in the North Lubec area. As North Lubec was the center for the village of Lubec in the early days, the listings include some of the earliest settlers of Lubec.

Most of these inscriptions were copied by Rebecca Hobart of Dennysville. The remainder were copied, and this booklet assembled, by Bernard M. Ross.

Some of the stones are barely legible, and we apologize for any errors there may be in these listings.

Cemeteries included are:

MORTON CEMETERY	Page 2
HOPLEY YEATON CEMETERY	3
MAJOR TRESMOTT CEMETERY	4
NORTH LUBEC CEMETERY (at Mill Creek)	5 to 13
REYNOLDS CEMETERY	14
NORTH LUBEC (upper) CEMETERY	15 to 19
HUCKINS CEMETERY	20
GOVE CEMETERY	21

There may also be others added to this booklet later, as they are found and copied.

YEATON, Hopley, Esq. D. 12 May 1812, AE 76

A PATRIOT OF '76

A son of freedom and order, too,
United by party; to his country true
No joys domestic, nor the love of ease
Could cool his patriotic zeal, in war or peace
Yielding his utmost aid with glory and success.

His remains were excavated and transferred to The United States Coast Guard Academy at New London, Connecticut for burial. He was the first man commissioned by President Washington as Master of a cutter.

This week I went to the Pikelands area and found the three Huckins graves on the trust land, but accessed them through the new logging road going left just after Nina's studio in North Lubec .The three stones were for:

James Huckins d.1868

Joanna Damon, wife d.1867

Abiah D Huckins d.1892, wife Rebecca d.1917 and Anne Stoddard d.1914
